

A painting depicting a group of people walking at night. The scene is reflected in a dark blue, glossy surface, possibly water or a wet street. The figures are dark, with some wearing light-colored clothing like a blue dress and a green skirt. The background shows a dark sky with some light. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

LO: To empathise with a character

Task: To write a diary entry

Under the Quilt of Night

Wednesday

Success Criteria

Must:

- I can write in the first person
- I can include a few of the thoughts and feelings of the unnamed girl.
- I can imagine that I am the un-named girl.
- I can check, edit and improve
- I can use precise and exciting vocabulary.

Could:

- I can use conjunctions and sentence openings
- I can use a wide range of punctuation
- I can use precise and exciting vocabulary

Challenge:

- I can vary the lengths and types of sentences for effect
- I can use the diary entry to explore the girl's thoughts and feelings
- I can show the girl's character through the diary entry
- I can write 2 contrasting diary entries using the correct features

The day I ran away.....

You can structure your diary like this:

Para 1

Explain how you feel about getting near to freedom

We have escaped....

All those years of....

The moon is....

I am strong, however I am worried about....

Para 2

I am imagining my master....

Is he likely to.....

When will I be and feel.....

I am hoping that...

Para 3

Now the challenge....

We had to cross...

Now the waiting game...

I rub my arms and legs because.....

I sit and think about.....